USING THE STREETS

For a Racecourse and Training Track a Dangerous Pastime

The streets of this city were not made to be used as a racecourse or a training track, yet time and again they have been perverted as such. In consequence of such perversion a thrilling and exciting incident was witnessed by the loungers about the Postoffice corner yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

Watt Fletcher, a colored horse trainer, was driving an unbroken colt attached to a gocart up Market and when opposite the First Baptist Church he bucked and cavorted like a circus horse and refused to go any farther in that direction.

Fletcher then turned the horse's head down Market, and as he did so Miss Ellen Kirk, a student at Hayswood, turned off Second into Market driving a buggy, and when about to pass each other the colt took another tantrum and began rearing and plunging. The colored man lost control of his charge and he wildly dashed into Miss Kirk's buggy, at the same time rearing and almost planting his forefeet in the young lady's lap; as it was his head struck her in the side. One shaft of Miss Kirk's buggy was broken.

The most remarkable feature about the whole affair was the composure of Miss Kirk. She did not lose her head, as most women under such trying circumstances generally do, but acted deliberately and with great presence of mind. She is certainly a little heroine.

JUDGE W. H. HOLT

Will Speak at the Courthouse Here This Evening

Judge W. H. Holt will be the orator at a Republican rally at the Courthouse in this city this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Judge Holt has always taken part in the Republican campaign work in the state, and has been in Maysville on several occasions.

He is a fine speaker and the Courthouse should be crowded.

Seats will be reserved for ladies.

The Western and Southern Life Insurance Company yesterday paid a policy of $137.50 held by the late John Bond.

A Jury at Greenup sustained the Matthew Rider will case. Mr. Rider died about two years ago and willed his property to Miss Mary Gibson, a girl he had taken from the Scioto County (O.) Children's Home, when she was only 13 years of age. A brother of the deceased contested the will.

MORE GRAFTERS

Two Hotel Beats Behind the Bars at Castle McIlvain

Well, well, here it is again; same old story. This city is certainly becoming a paradise for quick witted grafters.

This one was a dapper little chap—a man of affairs and business from the word go.

He entered the St. Charles Hotel at noon yesterday, walked up to the register and in a bold, legible hand subscribed Frank Collins, Cincinnati.

After arranging with that excellent gentleman, mine host Coulter, for the accommodation of eight men, who would arrive on the evening train, he retired to his room where, after taking a bath and donning a brand new up-to-date black suit—it is to be hoped that none of our clothiers have fallen a victim to his wiles and furnished the clothes on his good looking face—he reappeared in the office.

After appeasing a ravenous appetite with one of Mrs. Coulter's first-class dinners he felt in the humor for transacting business.

He had previously informed Mr. Coulter that the men were to do some difficult electrical work for the Maysville Telephone Company, and stepping to the 'phone he placed himself in communication with the express office.

After his conversation with the express people he turned to Mr. Coulter, and just at that moment Mrs. Coulter appeared in the office, and in a matter of fact and business way he told them that he had some material in the express office that he wanted to get out and that he lacked $8 of having sufficient money to release the goods; would they not be kind enough to advance him the amount; he was expecting a check in the morning and would return it.

His face and demeanor bore the impress of an honest man, and while Mrs. Coulter did not readily assent to the proposition, the assurance of Mr. Coulter that it would be all right, she pulled out her pocketbook and extracted a $10 bill. "Let me have the $10," said the man; "I will give it back in the morning."

The money changed hands and not many minutes after the dapper gentleman changed his location, where he will repeat the game on some other confiding innocent.

This is another instance where experience is worth something.

Ten dollars foots the bill.

Who will be the next?

The matter was placed in Chief Donovan's hands and in eight hours the man and a pal were behind the bars.

Officer Ort and Detective J. P. Wallace arrested them at the Brickyards above the city while waiting an opportunity to jump a freight train.

Their names as they appear on the Jail register are G. H. Butcher and Alex. Hawthorne.

When the Jail door clanked behind Butcher he cried in bitter anguish—

"Oh, if I had only heeded my mother's advice. In bidding me goodbye when I left home she told me to be a good boy and I promised I would."

He is a married man and is 24 years old. This is evidently his first break from the path of right doing.

The poor old mother; it is her heart that will bleed today in her Virginia home when she hears of the downfall of her boy.

Shirts to order, $1.50 and up. Any style, at Nelson's.

Mingo Tribe No. 93, I. O. R. M., of Newport, had a magnificent "stirrin' off" Thursday night, at which there was a feast of turkey and talk. One of the toasts, "The Progress of the Order in Kentucky," was responded to by Great Chief of Records Henry W. Ray of this city, and his voiceless condition yesterday was mute evidence that he had covered the whole ground.

It is a great boon to people on the down grade of life to know of a remedy which has such soothing and healing powers. It should be known to every person of advanced age."

WHILE political demagogues are trying to fool ignorant voters by silly statements about hard times, empty dinner pails, and kindred rot, the workingmen and the farmers are enjoying the most prosperous year in the Nation's history, while the money in actual circulation represents $31.16 for every man, woman and child in the United States.

BOB PERRY was making such a good paper out of The Winchester Sun-Sentinel that he wasn't satisfied. He has taken in LUCIEN BECKNER as a partner to help make it better.

COLONEL BRYAN's promise to deliver Nebraska to PARKER would mean more if Nebraska had not passed out of Mr. BRYAN's hands four years ago. Democrats are always ready to promise to give something they do not possess.

TOM WATSON says the Populists will carry Indiana, BRYAN says PARKER will carry it, while the Republicans are sure that it belongs to ROOSEVELT from Dan to Beersheba. But, then, Mr. BRYAN is such a poor guesser, while everybody knows that Mr. WATSON talks chiefly through his old straw hat.

Be Ready For Coughs.

It's letting disease fasten itself that kills. Dangerous possibilities lurk in every neglected cough or cold. Most things are easily cured if taken in time, especially throat and lung troubles.

Lincoln on Colonization and Expediency.

[From the New York Sun.]

If the Hon. Edward M. Shepard or any other Democratic orator is really anxious to measure by "the acts or utterances" of Abraham Lincoln the Republican policy with regard to the acquisition of foreign territory, said orator will find in the annual message of Dec. 3, 1861, Mr. Lincoln's opinion on the subject, briefly but clearly stated:

"Having practiced the acquisition of territory for nearly sixty years, the question of constitutional power to do so is no longer an open one with us."

Mr. Lincoln was not referring to the acquisition of adjoining territory with a view to its ultimate erection into statehood. He was discussing a plan of colonization for the benefit of both the free colored people already in the United States and the slave who might be liberated "at some place or places in a climate congenial to them." He said further:

"To carry out the plans of colonization may involve the acquiring of territory, and also the appropriation of money beyond that to be expended in the territorial acquisition. . . . On this whole proposition, including the appropriation of money with the acquisition of territory, does not the expediency amount to absolute necessity—that without which the government itself cannot be perpetuated?"

How Lincoln would have been denounced for his ideas of colonization and expediency as the supreme law if some of the orators now devoting their attention to McKinley, Roosevelt, Hay and Root had been vocal forty-five years ago!

Democrats For Roosevelt.

[From the New York Sunday Democrat.] Not less than 1,000,000 Democrats throughout the United States will cast their ballots for Theodore Roosevelt on Nov. 8.

Of course, if Judge Parker is incompetent to measure swords with the alert and daring Roosevelt, or if the Democratic party is incapable of sinning its differences and afraid of making a front attack on the enemy's intrenchments lest for lack of cohesion and discipline it may break in pieces again, it might as well retire from the contest at once and become a dishonored remnant.—Boston Herald.

"Stand pat!" is a good cry. We prefer it and all that it means—open mills, good wages for the workingmen, protection for American citizens when abroad, new markets in the far east, the Panama canal and a navy capable of defending it—to the uncertain administration of a party whose capacity for governing in the future can be measured only by its utter incapacity and failures of the past.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Irish sentiment will naturally preponderate in favor of Theodore Roosevelt, whose personality and most marked traits are strikingly akin to what we most glory in the Irish character. He has personal independence, pluck, impulsiveness, athletic ability and physical courage. Mr. Roosevelt has a strong current of Irish blood in his veins, and it bubbles over sometimes, strongly resembling a real Irishman. Nor has he forgotten what he owes to the Irish traits in him. He is a member of the Irish Historical society and takes a pride in many other things with an Irish side to them. He has always extended the courtesies of his great office to the representatives of our race who have visited this country from time to time. No man can point a finger of suspicion at the honesty of his official career. Judge Parker may be a very nice man, but what has he ever done to appeal to us as Theodore Roosevelt does?—Irish-American Advocate.

YOUR KIDNEYS ARE THEY WELL?
Unless they are, good health is impossible.

Every drop of blood in the body passes through and is filtered by healthy kidneys every three minutes. Sound kidneys strain out the impurities from the blood, diseased kidneys do not, hence you are sick. FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE makes the kidneys well so they will eliminate the poisons from the blood. It removes the cause of the many diseases resulting from disordered kidneys which have allowed your whole system to become poisoned.

Rheumatism, Bad Blood, Gout, Gravel, Dropsy, Inflammation of the Bladder, Diabetes and Bright's Disease, and many others, are all due to disordered Kidneys. A simple test for Kidney disease is to set aside your urine in a bottle or glass for twenty-four hours. If there is a sediment or a cloudy appearance, it indicates that your kidneys are diseased, and unless something is done they become more and more affected until Bright's Disease or Diabetes develops.

FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE is the only preparation which will positively cure all forms of Kidney and Bladder troubles, and cure you permanently. It is a safe remedy and certain in results.

If You are a sufferer, take FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE at once. It will make you well.

Some Pronounced Incurable
Mr. G. A. Stillson, a merchant of Tampico, Ill., writes: "FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE is meeting with wonderful success. It has cured some cases here that physicians pronounced incurable. I myself am able to testify to its merits. My face today is a living picture of health and FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE has made it such."

Had Lumbago and Kidney Trouble
Edward Huss, a well known business man of Salisbury, Mo., writes: "I wish to say for the benefit of others, that I was a sufferer from lumbago and kidney trouble, and all the remedies I took gave me no relief. I began to take FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE, and after the use of three bottles I am cured."

Ex-Governor George K. Nash dropped dead in the bathroom of his home at Columbus, O., at 11:45 yesterday morning. Heart trouble of long standing was the cause of death. Shortly after entering the bathroom a servant heard a sound produced by the fall of a body on the floor. The ex-Governor was dead when the servant reached the room, the body lying stretched upon the bathroom floor.

George Kilbon Nash was born August 14th, 1842. During the War he was a member of Volunteer Company K, One Hundred and Fiftieth Ohio National Guard. He had held several prominent political offices, retiring from the Governorship of Ohio last January after a second term. His death leaves but two ex-Governors of Ohio, Joseph B. Foraker and James E. Campbell. Within the past six months three former Governors have died, Foster, Bushnell and Nash.

A monument to Captain Ed. Porter Thompson will be unveiled at Frankfort November 3d.

An election will be held at Owingsville November 26th to decide whether or not the town shall have a graded school.

Trials of Motherhood

295 Broad Street.
PHILADELPHIA, PA., June 12, 1905.
I suffered for nine years with ovarian troubles making life a burden to myself as well as to my family. During that time I had two miscarriages and although we longed for a child to bless our home this seemed impossible. I had constant racking bearing-down pains in the pelvic organs and a pulling through my limbs with frequent headaches. I felt sick at my stomach and vomited frequently and no medicine helped me until I tried Wine of Cardui.
Then my general health improved, the pains gradually lessened and after 18 weeks I was well. I am now the happy mother of a boy eighteen months old and my husband joins me in sending heartfelt thanks to you for your splendid medicine.
Without, I would have been a childless, instead of a happy and well mother.
Mrs. Frederick Nirdlinger
CHAIRMAN, ST. ANDREW'S ASSOCIATION.

WINE OF CARDUI

Wine of Cardui is the most successful menstrual regulator. By regulating menstruation, Wine of Cardui banishes inflammation from the entire female organism and the strengthened ligaments bring the organs back to their proper place. This is what Wine of Cardui did for Mrs. Nirdlinger. It banished the racking pains and burning inflammation and brought her relief. She was restored to health and strength and gives Wine of Cardui the credit of making her able to become a happy mother. This medicine equips a woman for every duty of wifehood and motherhood. There are many suffering women who think that health can never be theirs because they cannot secure the services of a great specialist, but we want to say right here that while Mrs. Nirdlinger lives in Philadelphia, a great medical center, she depended on Wine of Cardui for a cure and she was cured. This same medicine is within your reach. Will you take it?
All druggists sell $1.00 bottles Wine of Cardui.

Some Seasonable Advice.

It may be a piece of superfluous advice to urge people at this season of the year to lay in a supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost sure to be needed before winter is over, and much more prompt and satisfactory results are obtained when taken as soon as a cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system, which can only be done by keeping the remedy on hand. This remedy is so widely known and so altogether good that no one should hesitate about buying it in preference to any other. It is for sale by all Druggists.

SKELETON DISCOVERED

Found on the Farm of Mr. W. E. Pyles Near Mayslick

A few days ago while at work on the farm of Mr. W. E. Pyles, near Mayslick, Messrs. H. C. Ray and Robert Catron were removing what they supposed to be a pile of rocks.

After having removed several rocks, and digging through a layer of dirt, they came upon a human skeleton.

It had evidently been buried when caskets were unknown or were not obtainable, as there wasn't any evidence of one having been used. The grave was about a foot in depth, and was walled with stone.

It is supposed that while some of the early pioneers were crossing this section of the country one of their party died and they buried the body in this way to protect the remains from the Indians and wild animals.

A Judicious Inquiry.

A well known traveling man who visits the drug trade says he has often heard druggists inquire of customers who asked for a cough medicine whether it was wanted for a child or for an adult, and if for a child they almost invariably recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The reason for this is that they know there is no danger from it and that it always cures. There is not the least danger in giving it and for coughs, colds and croup it is unsurpassed. For sale by all Druggists.

THE GREAT QUESTION IS WHY TRAXEL'S BREAD

And Candies are the best? For the reason that he knows HOW to make them. Other makes of bread would be just as good if made right, but it happens that they do not. Traxel knows how to make good icecream, too; brick or any kind you want.
